BLAME PLACED ON THE MOTORMAN

Victim of Wreck Says Man in Charge Was Asleep or Sick.

WANT JOINT INQUIRY

Six Persons Dead from Fearful Crash on Ocean View Railway Near Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., July 18.—Louis Goodman, fatally injured on Thursday night in the wreck at the Virginia Railway grade crossing on the Ocean View Division of the Virginia Railway and Power Company, declared a few minutes before he died yesterday that the collision resulted because Motorman W. K. Atkinson was either asleep or sick.

"We are runing very fast," stated the boy, "when we saw the red lights on the gate across the track, and I asked the motorman why he did not stop. He did not answer, so I shoved him and he straightened up, shut off his power, and tried to stop the car, but it was too late.

"We hit the freight train with an awful crash, and Joe Cooper was killed. When I woke the motorman, Ainsworth (a boy with Goodman) said it was too late to stop, and he was going to jump and for me to do the same, but I was in the middle and couldn't get out."

Fifteen minutes after making this statement in the presnce of his father, Hyman Goodman, two brothers, and attaches of St. Vincent's Hospital, young Goodman was dead.

This was the sixth death as result of the awful crash between trolley cars and coal gondolas at the Fairmount Park crossing at an early hour Thursday night, which resulted in the death of four men and two women, the serious injury of twelve of twelve others, and minor injuries to thirty one.

The Virginian Railway has requested the Virginia Railway and Power Company to participate in a joint investigation of the tragedy, to be conducted here on Monday under the supervison of the Interstate Commerce Commission. To this the traction company has replied that it will participate in this inquiry, provided the State Corporation Commission gives its sanction. A message has been sent to Richmond to the effect.

Norfolk, Va., July 18.—Six persons were killed and nineteen injured in a collision between an electric train of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company and a coal train on the Virginian Railroad early yesterday morning at Fairmount crossing, about three miles from Norfolk.

Five of those killed died almost instantly and the sixth fatality was that of a victim who died just before noon.

The electric train left Ocean View at midnight. At the Virginian Railroad crossing, trainmen say, the safety gates were down and a coal train of 70 cars was passing en route to Roanoke. The electric train crashed through the gates and into the freight train.

The electric train, made up of two wooden coaches, crumpled up after the collision and passengers were pinned in the wreck. They were released only after rescuers had cut away the broken seats and timbers that held them.

Many of them had broken legs and arms. The groans of women could be heard for blocks, and scores of persons residing near by went to the scene with bandages and water.

W. A. Atkinson, motorman of the trolley train, who suffered a crushed leg, in statements given out today declares that a quarter of a mile from the crossing he saw the danger and that the airbrakes of the motor car for some unexplained reason failed to work. He was unable to stop the car, finally reversing his motor, but too late to prevent the accident. Passengers on the car shouted at Atkinson and declare that something seemed to be wrong, as he could not bring down the speed of the train.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The Bavarian minister of education announces that nonsectarian religious teaching will not be tolerated hereafter in the Bavarian schools. The minister declares it has been found that such instruction leads to impiety and is opposed to the moral basis upon which the state is founded. The edict followed earnest agitation by the Catholics against this system of religious instruction in the schools.

An unprecedented number of suicides and attempted suicides have occurred in Mexico City since the fall of the Huerta government. In the past two days four suicides and three attempts have been reported. The residents are appalled. There has been a notable lack of crime, and the tranquility of the capital continues undisturbed, although a feeling of uneasiness prevails.

An unidentified man, who had attacked the 8-year-old daughter of J. B. Hardman, a farmer living in a sparsley settled near Baker, Ore., was taken from his captors, a party of ranchers, by twelve masked men Thursday night and lynched.

Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, indicted yesterday at Freeport, N. Y., on the charge of manslaughter in the first degree in connection with the killing of Mrs. Louise Bailey, went back to her home and her family last night, temporarily a free woman. She was released for trial woman. She was released for trial under $20,000 bail fifteen minutes after the grand jury make known its finding to Justice Van Sicklin, sitting in the criminal branch of the supdeme court at Mineola. The bail for Mrs. Carman was furnished by Emmett Randell and Smith Cox, close friends of the Carmans. Dr. Carman said he had been forced to decline offers of bail totaling $750,000.

After a pitched battle between several hundred striking coal miners and sympathizers and 100 guards stationed at the Prairie Creek mines of the Mammoth Vein Coal Company, near Fort Smith, Ark., yesterday, which ended in the rout of the guards, tipples of three mines were destroyed by fire and dynamite The property damage is estimated at $200,000. So far as can be ascertained no one was killed or wounded in the fighting, which began shortly after daybreak and continued until late in the day, when the mine guards retreated after their ammunition was exhausted.

Two persons are known to have been killed and more than a score injured, and property worth more than a million dollars destroyed by a cyclone which swept through the business section of Hendersonville, Ky., and adjacent towns last night. Much damage was done to boats in the Ohio River, and two boys, caught in midstream when the storm broke, perished. In Hendersonville a large factory was lifted from its foundations, and crashed down upon a residence, killing a woman and her nephew.

The attempt of Miss Annie Burrans, a student at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, who was swimming to climb into a rowboat in which were her sister, Mrs. Minnie Mills, of South Merrimack, the latter's two small children, Marjory and Evelyn, and her young niece, Dorothy Burrans, caused the drowning of all five yesterday. The accident occurred in Naticook Lake in South Merrimack.

Martin E. Hall, 79 years of age, the father of nineteen children, and Miss Cora Faughn, a timid maiden of 18 summers, were married in Clarksville, Tenn., in the courthouse at a late hour Thursday night by Magistrate J. M. Jarrell. The couple eloped from Lyon county, Ky., Miss Faughn from her parents and Hall from his children. During the ceremony the bride supported the bridegoom, who walks with the aid of a heavy cane. Hall, weak from fear of pursuit by his army of children, frequently urged Judge Jarrell to make haste with the ceremony. After the knot had been tied he planted a kiss on the rosebud lips of his child-bride, and the couple departed, arm in arm, for a suite in a hotel.

PRISONERS MUST WORK ON ROADS

Governor Stuart Would Clean Out Prisons of Able-Bodied Men.

ALEXANDRIA HAS 25

Statute Requires All Convicts to Join Force Unless They Can Show Physical Incapacitation.

Richmond, July 18—On the initiative of Governor Stuart, a movement was launched yesterday, the object of which is to meet the urgent demand for more men to work on the public roads of the State. The plan is to take from the city and county jails all the able-bodied men now imprisoned in idleness, who, under the law, ought to be laboring on the highways.

Action was taken at a meeting called by the executive. There were present State Highways Commissioner George P. Coleman, Superintendent J. B. Wood, of the State Penitentiary, and Attorney General John Garland Pollard. Ways and means to recruit the road forces with men who would now be at work on the roads if the law were enforced were discussed.

On June 30 there were being held in the jails no fewer than 1,056 men, and it is estimated that at least one-third of these, and probably more, are fully able to be on the roads, and would be of material advantage to the State, instead of a charge on the taxpayers.

Norfolk city is the worst offender in this regard. On June 30, 256 men were in jail there, and it is believed a large percentage of them are being held there contrary to the statute. Richmond is next in this respect, with 202 men. Alexandria had 25; Danville, 34; Newport News, 70; Petersburg, 41, and Roanoke, 87. It is noted that very few men are being held in this manner in the county jails, with the exception of Norfolk County, where on June 30, 79 men were being held. Nansecond is a poor second, with only 20.

Of the 1,056 men, it was agreed that at least 300, and more likely 500, should be on the roads, under the statute, which provides that able-bodied men, whether convicted of felony or misdemeanor, become immediately a part of the convict road force of this State, unless they can show to the judge satisfactory reasons why they should not be put on the roads. The burden of proof in this respect is upon the prisoner.

While it is deemed bad financing to take men with very short terms, such as 30 and in some cases 65 men, to the roads, because of the cost of transportation and supplies, it was believed by yesterday's conferees that the sick and incapacitated and women and short-term men will not number anything like two-thirds of the total.

In jails the prisoners are burdens on the State, which must pay for their keep in idleness. On the roads, they give their labor, and fare greatly better in health and spirits.

The officials in conference determined that some steps should be taken looking to a more complete enforcement of the law on this subject while the highway commissioner is being overwhelmed with demands for men.

HELD FOR LURING MAN

Divorced Woman Indicted in Milwaukee Under Mann Act.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 18—The first indictment against a woman under the Mann Act was returned by a federal grand jury here yesterday. Her name s Clara Holte and she is charged with luring a man away from his home into another state for purposes in violation of the "White Slave" act.

The man, Chester C. Laudenschlager, was persuaded to leave his wife and family in St. Paul, Minn., by the woman—twice a divorcee—who fell in love with him, the indictment charges.

MAY EXCEED C. & O. RATES

Richmond Among Cities to Which Increase Will Be Aplicable.

Washington, July 18—In a supplemental order yesterday the Interstate Commeree Commission held joint through rates on bituminous coal ever connecting lines fro mthe Kanawha coal fields in West Virginia to Eastern and Southeastern points may exceed by 5 cents per ton the rates in effect contemporaneously over the through lines of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway. The Commission previously had held, in its order establishing through rates over the connecting lines, that these rates must be identical with those of the Chesapeake and Ohio.

The principal Southeastern destinations to which the increase allowed today will be applicable are: Clifton Forge, Covington, Richmond, Norfolk, Petersburg, Alexandria and Danville, Va.; Greensboro, Durham, Wilmington, Monroe and Charlotte, N. C., Coumbia, Chareston, Aiken, Darington and Camden, S. C.; Atlanta, Savannah, Macon and Augusta, Ga., and Fernandina and Jacksonville, Fla.

EAGLES PLAY BALL.

Battle Thirteen Innings to a Tie in an Exciting Game.

Washington, D. C., July 18.—After battling thirteen innings Thursday at Tony Auth's farm on Bladensburg Road, the Libertyties and Justiceites, composed of members of the Entertainment Committee of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, quit on account of darkness with the score 3 to 3.

Both Oppenheimer and Cowen pitched good ball, although the former was in many tight places owing to several miscues of his teammates.

A handsome trophy has been donated by a local firm and the two teams will battle for it at Marshall Hall on Thursday, August 13, on which date the annual excursion of the Order will be held.

Manager Coughlin will present his same line-up on that day with one exception, Big Ed Lee, formerly of Honolulu, will toe the rubber, and as usual, Old Reliable John Campbell will do the receiving.

Manager Gaver has not decided on his battery for the occasion, but in all probability it will be "Smokey" Cowen and Billy Boyle.

BEEF PRICES BREAK RECORD

Highest Ever Known for Month of July.

Kansas City, July 18.—Thus far this year 150,000 fewer cattle have been marketed in Kansas City than in the same period in 1913, the receipts being the smallest of any similar period in 20 years. The decrease is attributed to the drouth in the Southwest last summer.

Prices are the highest ever known for this month. The demand now, cattlemen and meat packers say, must be supplied mostly from grass-fed cattle. Another crop of prime corn-fed beeves cannot be made, they say, until the corn crop of 1914 is available, probably not sooner than the middle of November.

If August prices for corn-fatted steers are as much higher than the July level as they were in 1912, next month will see prime beeves bringing $11 a hundred pounds in Kansas City. Beeves of those mentioned sold here yesterday at $9.85 .

HEAT FATAL IN NEW YORK.

Vocal Teacher and Blacksmith Are Victims.

New York, July 18.—Alexander McGuirk, vocal teacher, was overcome by heat and died in his studio in Carnegie Hall, Fifty-seventh St., and Seventh avenue, yesterday afternoon. His was the second death today caused by heat. He was giving a lesson when he was overcome. Dr. Bergen, of the Flower Hospital, said death was due to heart trouble, induced by heat.

McGuirk was widely known in musical circles. He was 50 years old, and lived in Brooklyn. He leaves a widow and three children.

Sylvester Mackey, a blacksmith, of 241 East Eighty-first street, was overcome by heat, while working at 402 East Eighty-first street. His brother, William, started to take him home. When they had gone about half the distance, Sylvester dropped to the sidewalk and died.

MEXICO HAS AN EMPTY EXCHEQUER

Discontented Soldiers and Civil Employees Clamor for Money.

HUERTA TOOK $6,000,000

Provisional President Is Harrassed by Pressing Creditors—Banks May Help Him Through.

Mexico City, July 18.—The Carbajal government is facing a crisis. It has no money. Its treasury is depleted of funds, and salaries of thousands of government employes are due. The army is unpaid. Dissension in the ranks of both the civilian employes and the military over the probable nonpayment of salaries is causing the new administration protracted anxiety.

The chances are that salaries will be unpaid for some time yet, as the treasury is empty. The salaries of practically all government men are due next Monday.

President Carbajael's associates today frankly admitted that the executive has found himself in financial straits, and is facing the gravest of situations.

It is possible that the banks will come to his rescue. Carbajal's only hope rests on this.

Huerta took with him when he fled the country, more than $6,000,000. No one believes, however, that the former dictator looted the treasury. The finances of the republic have been low for years When Diaz left the country, there was but little money in treasury, Madero, when he became the executive, found even less, and friends of Huerta declare that there was scarcely any coin to the credit of the government when the latter assumed control.

President Carbajal expected to find the treasury depleted, following the abdication of General Huerta, but he believed he would at least find funds with which to meet the expenses incurred in the government offices. If the government clerks and many higher officials are not paid it is certain that serious discontent will folow and the provisional administration will face trouble at the very outset.

Puerto Mexico, July 18.—General Victorianno Huerta will sail from Puerto Mexico for Jamaica at noon today on the British cruiser Bristol. Three years ago the old Indian dictator escorted Porfirio Diaz to Vera Cruz, when the latter fled from the country before Francisco Madero, and today much the same scenes of farewell were enacted for him.

ON VERGE OF COLLAPSE

Congressman Glass Goes Home on Indefinite Leave of Absence.

Washington, D. C, July 18.—Congressman Carter Glass left yesterday afternoon for his home at Lynchburg, where he will stay about two weeks in an effort to shake off a threatened attack of complete nervous prostration induced by overwork.

He has obtained an indefinite leave of absence from the House of Representatives on account of ill health.

While it is his present intention to remain at home and take a complete rest for two weeks, he may stay longer if the conditions in the House with regard to legislation will permit.

A few days ago he was examined by the diagnostician of Johns Hopkins University, who advised him to take a complete rest to relieve congestion of the nerves at the base of the brain.

Charles Entwisle and wife and daughter, Ida, have gone to Norfolk and Newport News for a ten days' trip.

V. M. I. BOARD NAMED.

Appointments to the board of visitors of the Virginia Military Institute were announced in Richmond yesterday afternoon by Governor Stuart. The honors were distributed so as to give every section of the State representation on the new board. The appointments are: Colonel Francis L. Smith, Alexandria; General Charles J. Anderson, Richmond; Captain Thomas L. Tate, Pulaski; Walter H. Taylor, Norfolk, and Colonel Joseph Button, Appomattox. These appointments are for a term of four years, beginning July 1.

It will be seen that the Governor has placed the right man in the proper place in each instance. While Alexander the Great was careful not to offend either of the Gymnosophists by passing compliments on any individual, Alexandria naturally feels a pride in the reappointment of Colonel Francis L. Smith as one of the visitors. A student himself at this West Point of the South when the civil war broke out, he, after being a student under the great Stonewall Jackson, participated in the Battle of Newmarket in which conflict he was seriously wounded. His love for martial life was by no means extinguished by the four years' war, and a few years after his return to his home in this city he was made captain of the first military company organized in Alexandria after the close of hostilities. Thoroughly familiar with every thing connected with the Virginia Military Institute, Colonel Smith's services as visitor have been valuable during the quarter of a century or more that he has been a member of the board.

ANOTHER HANGFIRE.

Europe Injects Issue Into Mexican Situation.

European creditors of the Huerta government have injected an issue into the Mexican situation which threatens the present favorable prospects for a peaceful and satisfactory transfer of power from the administration of Carbajal government to the constitutionalists.

These European creditors demand that the constitutionalists recognize the debts of the Huerta government so far as European loans are concerned. The plan of Guadalope, which is the constitutionalists platform, declares that the legislative acts of the Huerta government shall not be recognized, which repudiates these debts. Moreover, General Carranza himself has repudiated them.

The State Department hac recognized the necessity of the constitutionalists assuming responsibility for these debts in order that the new Carranza government may obtain recognition from the European powers and a standing amongst foreign financiers. Instructors have been sent to Consul Silliman at Santillo to make representations to General Carranza to this effect.

SAD ENDING OF JOY RIDING

Two Injured in Crash on Road Between Washington and Baltimore.

SIX MEN ARRESTED

Chauffeur Takes Car from Front of Hotel in Capital City and Becomes Lost on Road.

Baltimore, Md., July 18.—Two men are in a critical condition at the University Hospital and six others are prisoners at the Western police station following an automobile accident on the Washington-Baltimore boulevard early this morning. All the men are Washingtonians, and the mishap followed a joy ride that began in the Capital. The men held by the police are charged with driving off an automobile, the property of Mrs G. A. Lambert, of the Dresden, Washington, without the owner's consent.

Those at the hospital are:

McCord Pearce, twenty-seven, 1202 Eighteenth street, fractured skull, dislocated hip, lacerated face and legs.

Frank Phillips, twenty-eight of 629 G street, broken right arm, suffering from shock and may be internally injured.

Both men are unconscious and the physicians at the hospital hold out little hope for their recovery.

The following names and addresses were given by the men at the police station.

Arthur J. Bridgett, 2212 G street.
William H. Duvall, 2427 M street.
Paul Bonavrice, 2102 H street.
Joseph Scalia, same address.
Arthur L. Nelson, 2134 I street.

Slight injuries were suffered by the Scalias and Nelson, but after having them dressed at the hospital they were taken to the police station.

The six prisoners were given a preliminary hearing before Justice Saylor, in the western police court, this morning, and then held without bail for a further hearing this afternoon. Over the telephone this morning Mrs. Lambert told Captain Cole that she would come to Baltimore immediately, and she is expected to be present at the hearing this afternoon. Mrs. Lambert told the police captain that she did not know her car was out of the garage last night.

With tears in his eyes Nelson recounted to Justice Sayler the events preceding and following the accident. He and six companions were walking down Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, near midnight, he said, when Pearce drove up in an automobile. The witness said he was well-acquainted with Pearce, and knew him to be Mrs. Lambert's chauffeur. Pearce invited the men for a ride, and all jumped into the car.

The party cruised about Washington, testified Nelson, and stopped at a number of cafes to buy drinks. Some one suggested that they all take a ride out into the country, and the party started on the old Chapel road.

After they had traversed about twenty-fivfie miles, said Nelson, Pearce, who was at the wheel, lost his way, after driving up several roads that led them to farm houses. Pearce surrendered the wheel to Nelson, who says he is an automobile machinist. Nelson testified that he soon found his way to a main thoroughfare, and started, as he thought, back to Washington.

Deposed President Had Counseled Resignation of Huerta.

Paris, July 18.—General Porfiria Diaz, former president of Mexico, was packing in preparation for his departure for Biarritz for the summer season when the news came that Provisional President Huerta had decided to resign. Neither the former dictator nor his son Porfiria would make any comment, but it is known that he suggested to Huerta some months ago the advisability of resignig.

Privately General Diaz has often sharply criticised the policy of the Washington administration, but he has for some time held the opinion that Huerta's disappearance would facilitate a solution of the Mexican problem.

WALDORF DANDY THIEF

Capght After Stealing $500 with Chewing Gum on Cane.

New York, July 18.—While the cashier at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel was engaged for a moment on the telephone yesterday afternoon a modishly dressed young man fished $500 in bills through the opening of the wire cage, using for the purpose a walking cane plastered with chewing gum and varnished with glue.

The cashier turned as the young man vanished through the lobby into Fifth avenue, packed with the afternoon parade of shoppers. Consternation reigned among the guests as the youth brushed them aside and the chase in Fifth avenue caused a great commotion until a traffic policeman caught the stylish thief.

OMNIBUS CLAIMS BILL

Several Alexandria Churches Interested Measure Which is Before Congress.

Washington, D. C., July 18, 1914.—The Omnibus Claims Bill, carrying a total of nearly a quarter of a million dollars for Virginia people and Virginia churches, has a prospect of going through the Senate at this session. In case it should not be reached before adjournment, however, because of the congested condition of the Senate calendar of business, it will not lose its position of vantage on the calendar and will be so well placed at the beginning of the next session of Congress that there should not be any doubt about its becoming a law at that time. Senator Martin, who has looked after claims of this nature as no other Senator from any State ever has, is working with all his characteristic energy and effectiveness to keep all these claims in the bill and to get the bill through at this session. There are forty-nine private claims calling for a total of $110,163.77, and one hundred and twenty-six claims of churches and other institutions with a total of $129,616.00. These latter range from $75 to $18,475.00 each, and every section of the State and every important denomination is included.

When the bill was pending in the Senate Committee on Claims Senator Martin was able to hold but three of the House claims in the bill, and was able also to put seven new ones into it.

The prospects for the measure are excellent, and Senator Martin is leaving no stone unturned to insure its passage. He realizes that there is some opposition to it—indeed there always has been strenuous opposition to omnibus claims bills.

DOG DAYS DRAWING NEAR

Little Girl Bitten by Canine in Northern Section of City Yesterday

Among the cases in the Police Court this morning was that of Chas. Dilger, who was charged with harboring a vicious dog. According to the testimony, Mary L. Essig, four-year-old daughter of T. W. Essig, had been attacked by Dilger's dog. Dr. Delaney, who examined the child, testified that the prints of the animal's teeth were in the wound.

Two witnesses for the defense asserted that the dog did not bite the child. Justice Caton ordered the animal to be killed. At the suggestion of Dr. Delaney, the head will be sent to Washington for examination.

The police are about to start on their crusade against unlicensed, ownerless and unmuzzled dogs. The latter are seen daily prowling about the city notwithstanding the ordinance passed by the City Council over a year ago.

The law has, in a measure, been ignored by many persons who own dogs. Last summer, it will be remembered, a number of people were made to pay fines for defying the statute. It will probably be so this summer.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY.

Negro Charged With Violating United States Law.

On complaint of Thomas E. Hudson, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue, Burnett Parker, colored, was arrested several days ago by W. E. Schoeni, Deputy United States Marshal, and brought before R. P. W. Garnett, United States Commissioner, to answer the charge of selling unstamped liquor in violation of section 3242 of the revised statutes. He was released under bond to appear yesterday, in order to allow time for summoning material witnesses.

After an investigation of the case yesterday by Commissioner Garnett, Parker was released upon renewing his bond for his appearance before the grand jury of the United States District Court.

STILL VIOLATING THE LAW.

Several Persons Cited to Appear Before Police Court This Morning.

Violations of the traffic law are still being reported at police headquarters. Several persons were notified yesterday to appear before the Police Court this morning and show cause why they should not be fined for making improper turns at street intersections, or failing to stop in front of electric trains while the latter are taking on or putting off passengers.

One of the accused, was a nonresident, and pleading ignorance of the law, he was dismissed with an admonition. Another offender forfeited his collateral by failing to appear, and two were fined $1 each.

NEWSPAPER THE PROPER MEDIUM.

Printers' ink has won over billboard paste in theatrical advertising, if the manager of the Garrick, in Chicago, is right, for he decided that newspaper space only would be good enough to insure packed houses for a play in which educated people be most interested. "Bill-boards usually are most numerous where the persons who read are the fewest," said the manager in explaining his stand. You know that persons who ride past bill-boards are usually going too fast to read them, and 90 per cent of the folks who ride read the newspapers while on the cars. We intend to advertise more and more in the newspapers and less on the boards."

It is strange the theatrical managers mentioned above went so long without realizing what they now so plainly set forth. Placards and handbills are the most ineffective means of bringing one's business before the public. Very few people stop to read what is displayed on bill-boards, while some may halt to glance at some suggestive picture, after scanning the different points of the compass to be sure no one is watching.

The average man or woman who appears on the streets has no time to read posters, and if they had, they regard such a procedure as an indication of vulgar taste .

The daily paper is read at home, when there is time to do it justice, and advertisements appearing therein are sure to attract attention.

It is, however, difficult to get any community to thoroughly understand this. Some merchants, fired by enterprise, have recourse to the small handbills, which are improperly distributed—that is, cast upon doorsteps from which they are generally blown into gutters. Juvenile or irresponsible distributors often grow tired of their occupation, and watch an opportunity to deposit most of the prints into the first sewer opening they find.

During the Civil War a German, who was conducting a photograph gallery in this city, concluded to cut prices in order to get busy. He conceived the idea of using handbills to obtain orders. After the "dodgers" had been distributed, probably in the usual way, he told the printer he had not heard from them. Had he used a newspaper in his enterprise the result would have been different.

In olden times in Alexandria advertising was looked upon as the sine qua non of every branch of business. Merchant tailors, lockssmiths, doctors, dentists, lawyers, and everybody else engaged in any occupation, would have regarded themselves as out of the swim if they failed to insert their cards in the newspaper .

While the mode of advertising has changed with the years, the value of this medium is still as apparent as ever . In bygone days announcements of occupations would often go unchanged during an entire year, others were changed with the seasons and a few more often . In our day tradesmen, up to the times, seldom allow the same advertisement to appear twice.

Stabbed by a Negro.

Richmond, July 18.—G. A. Pyper, a Henrico county officer, was set upon by a gang of negroes at Stop 31 on the Ginter Park street car line shortly before 12 o'clock last night, and was badly stabbed in the back and neck and about the body before he wrenched himself loose from the crowd and laid about him with his baton.

The officer was called to Newman's Hall, where a negro dance was in progress, to quiet an alleged disorderly crowd. When Pyper arrived the negroes swarmed into the open, and he grabbed the nearest one to him and placed him under arrest. Immediately there was a general fight, six or eight negroes setting upon the lone officer. In the melee the negro under arrest was snatched from his captor. Another negro in the crowd drew a razor, and three times the officer felt the sharp weapon cutting into his flesh. A flying brick struck him in the head, and added to his injuries. As he fell the negroes parted and fled, leaving Pyper bleeding on the ground.

When he picked himself up and found that he had been stabbed and was bleeding from several wounds, Pyper started for the street car tracks, and caught a Richmond-bound car. He went straight to the City Home, where he was treated by Dr. H. S Stern, City Hospital ambulance surgeon.

Lost Ring Recovered.

A remarkable story of the recent recovery of a ring lost on board the old U. S S. Constellation more than fifty years ago was told yesterday by Secretary of the Navy Daniels.

When it was recently announced that the historic sailing battleship Constellation was to be overhauled at the Norfolk Navy Yard, Secretary Daniels received a letter from Mrs. Rost Kerney Winston, of Windsor, S. C., asking that during the overhaul search be made for a ring. The ring, she wrote, had been lost on board the ship by her father, Dr. Kenney, who served on the old fighting ship during and after the civil war. Her father had often declared, she said, that the ring could never be recovered until the ship was overhauled. Dr. Kenney valued it most highly, because it was an heirloom.

Secretary Daniels sent the letter to Norfolk, never dreaming that the ring actually would be found. This week, however, the ring arrived from Norfolk, having been found by workmen under the iron covering plates of the anchor bits on the gun deck forward.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?

When relief from rheumatic pains may be had at so small a cost it is surprising that anyone should fail to avail himself of it. Joseph Copparelli, Canastota, N. Y., suffered intensely with pains due to rheumatism in his limbs for a long time A friend told him about Chamberlain's Liniment. One application relieved him wonderfully, and a few days' treatment effected a cure. Many others have found quick relief by applying this liniment. For sale by all dealers.

LATEST FISH STORY

Man Lands Rattlesnake and Bass at Same Time.

Winchester, Va., July 18.—Howard Wells, of Dunmar, W. Va., and two companions, who were angling for bass in Capon River a day or two ago, were given the fright of their lives when a large rattlesnake was discovered swimming across the stream and rattling its tail in a manner that left no doubt of its readiness for battle.

Each of the three men was wading and struggling to land four and five-pound bass which they had hooked and instead of going in the opposite direction the snake swam right up to Mr. Wells, whose companions had retreated.

Wells kept one eye on the snake and the other on the line, at which the fish was tugging gamely, and when the rattler came within striking distance he dealt it a back-breaking blow with a small steel rod. A fish-hook caught the snake in the mouth and Mr. Wells pulled in fish and snake at the same time. The bass weighed a little over five pounds. The snake was four and one-half feet long, its body was as large as a man's forearm and its tail contained nine rattles and a button. River men never saw a rattler swim in the river, they said.

FOREST FIRES RAGING

Freeling, Va., July 18.—Forest fires are raging in the south side of Cumberland mountain, near here as a result of the recent dry spell. The woods had not been burned out for several years and a mass of leaves and dry underbrush had accumulated. Valuable timber is being destroyed, but the flames rage so fiercely that no effort is made to check the fire.

Such fires in summer, when the woods are supposed to be green, were never known before by the oldest inhabitants.

ADMINISTRATIVE BOARD

Richmond, Va., July 18.—In the primary election here Thursday for members of the city administration board, Captain Carleton McCarthy, former Mayor, and John Hirschburg, both members of the board at this time, were nominated over Graham Hobson, John Mann and John Blair. Captain McCarthy led the ticket, the other finishing in the order named.

MEETS DEATH IN PAPER MILLS

Covington, Va., July 18.—Mr. Henry Jackson, who for a number of years has been employed as engineman by the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company, of Covington, met death in a tragic manner while at his work in the engine room of that company a few nights ago. Mr. Jackson was a member of the night force and went to work as usual and had been busy for about an hour when in connection with his duty it became necessary to adjust some electric wires. While thus engaged he picked up a charged wire, thinking that it contained no electricity, with the result that he was thrown a distance of several yards and his body struck heavily against the wall of the room, resulting in instant death. Mr. Jackson was forty odd years old and leaves a wife and several children.

E. S. LEADBEATER & SONS' UNUSUAL OFFER.

Sell Dr. Howard's Specific at Half Price and Guarantee a Cure.

"It is not often that we have faith enough in the medicine put up by othe people to be willing to offer to refund the money if it does not cure," said E. S. Leadbeater & Sons to a Gazette man, who dropped into their store," but we are glad to sell Dr. Howard's specific for the cure of constipation and dyspepsia on that basis.

"The Dr. Howard Company in order to get a quick introductory sale, authorizes us to sell their regular fifty cent bottles at half price, 25 cents and, although we have sold a lot of it, and have guaranteed every package, not one has been brought back as unsatisfactory.

"We are still selling the specific at half price, although we cannot tell how long we shall be able to do so, and anyone who is subject to constipation, sick headache, dizziness, liver trouble, indigestion or a general played out condition, ought to take advantage of this chance. You can tell your readers that if they are not satisfied with the specific that they can come right back to our store and we will cheerfully refund their money."

STARVED TO DEATH

Husband of Dead Woman Arrested on Serious Charge.

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 18.—When J. E. Mayhew, local agent of the West Virginia Humane Society, went to a farm near Belleville, this county, yesterday to arrest Samuel G. Cunningham on a charge of failing to provide his wife with food, he found the woman dead from starvation.

Cunningham admitted to the officer, it is alleged, that he had started to dig the woman's grave and made her a coffin out of a rough box two weeks ago. He only stopped digging the grave when neighbors threatened to mob him. Mrs. Cunningham died yesterday afternoon, and when her husband wanted her buried immediately the undertaker refused to carry out his orders. Cunningham's trial was set for next Monday.

AGREE TO ARBITRATION

Trainmen Accept Mediation Offer from Washington.

Chicago, July 18.—Danger of a strike o fthe engine crews of Western railroads was deferred last night when the representative of the men accepted an offer of mediation by William L. Chamber, chairman of the Federal Board of Mediation and Conciliation. The meeting with the full board will begin here Monday.

The offer of mediation by Mr. Chambers came as a result of a request of A. W. Trenholm, chairman of the Committee of General Managers, which was made in spite of a formal announcement that the employes would decline to accept mediation. The latter charged that in the past the railways had refused to abide by the findings of arbitration boards.

CASE OF MME. CALLAUX

Straw Vote Stands 3 to 1 in Favor of Freeing Slayer of Editor of Le Figaro.

Paris, July 18.—Whether Mme. Joseph Caillaux will appear in the Court of Assizes next Monday broken and upon the verge of nervous collapse, or in the best of health and her beauty undimmed by months of imprisonment, was the question all Paris was discussing today.

Mme. Caillaux will go on trial on Monday for the shooting of Gaston Calmette, editor of Le Figaro, in his office last March, and as the day approaches widely conflicting reports as to the condition of the wife of the ex-premier and minister of finance are being circulated..

Throughout Paris "straw votes" are being taken as to the possible verdict of the jury which will hear Mme. Caillaux's case. At a recent assembly of men a newspaper correspondent polled three votes for acquittal for each one of guilty. Those opposing acquittal agreed, however, that if Mme. Caillaux was not acquitted the State would nevertheless fail to convict her of premeditated murder.

It was the opinion that if a verdict of guilty was returned it would be for one of the lighter homicides, which would permit "the first offense" act to be called into play and she would be allowed to go free

Woman's Duty to Herself.

Every woman owes it to herself to keep in good health. No one can reasonably be expected to maintain a cheerful disposition when half sick. Indigestion and constipation are two of the most common ills to which women are subject and fortunately are easily cured. Mrs. H. C. Getty, Indiana, Pa., writes: "Last summer I was advised by a friend to try Chamberlain's Tablets for indigestion and constipation. This medicine not only cured me of these disorders, but toned up my whole system so that my health has been better than for years since taking them." For sale by all dealers.

A Hint to the Wise Is Sufficient.

When constipated take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. For sale by all dealers.

Dangers of Cholera Morbus.

In almost every neighborhood some one has died from an attack of cholera morbus before medicine could be procured or a physician summoned. Every family should be prepared for such an emergency. Mrs. E. M. Snyder, Herkimer, N. Y., says: "About four years ago my husband had an attack of cholera morbus. I gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it relieved the pain immediately, and two or three doses of it effected a cure." For sale by all dealers.

Quick Cure for Diarrhoea.

The most prompt and effectual cure for diarrhoea is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. When given as soon as the first unnatural looseness of the bowels appears one dose is nearly always sufficient to effect a cure. It should be kept at hand ready for instant use. For sale by all dealers.

"About five years ago I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets after suffering from indigestion and constipation for years without finding anything to relieve me. Chamberlain's Tablets helped me at once and by using them for several weeks I was cured of the complaint," writes Mrs. Mary E. McMullen, Phelps, N. Y.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE
And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework.

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.
